THE TIMING WILL CHANGE BASED ON WHAT IS NEEDED ***

 Students will have their own work space and will be expected to come in ready to learn. You will notice on the registration form there is a “behavioral contract” to be signed by student and parent. We want to create an atmosphere where students can get the most out of their remote learning as possible. We realize this is a challenging time in education and see a HUGE IMPORTANCE in helping students stay on task and continue their education. Disruptive behavior will NOT be tolerated. Thank you for understanding.

WANT TO REGISTER? ...WONDERFUL!!! Although we wish the circumstances were different for our student’s education, we are EXCITED about this new adventure and hope to make the BEST of it! We hope learning at CAMP MANNA becomes a great memory for your child! We are praying that we will utilize this time to encourage your student, teach important character building skills and provide them with a Christ-centered atmosphere for their learning days!
